Guidelines for Letter of Recommendation

Letters of recommendation should include the length of time and context in which you know the person, knowledge of the person's ability to perform various duties, to complete assignments in a timely manner and to meet, added challenges. Personal observations you have made of the person with regards to community involvement and/or volunteer efforts.

Additional significant and positive information you may provide about the student will be looked upon favorably by the scholarship committee and could result in the awarding of additional points consistent with our system of scoring. For this scholarship, recommendation by a relative will not be considered.
